

New Clubhouse at last

Wivenhoe Tennis Club was delighted to welcome Wivenhoe Town Mayor, Penny Kraft, to the club for the ceremonial opening of new clubhouse on Sunday 2 December. The weather was beautifully clear but cold, which didn't prevent a good number of members, juniors and their parents from attending to watch a junior tournament run by club coach Jamie Bird, before the official part of the afternoon. The club was also pleased to welcome Town Councillor Neil Lodge and Wivenhoe and District Sports Facility Trust chairman, Andrew Nightingale, to the opening. The chill was taken off the afternoon by some chilled sparkling wine to celebrate the event.

David Sacker

Photo: David Sacker

Cllr Neil Lodge, Phil Bingham, chairman Brian Coyne